Mr. Weisberg:

The editorial in yesterday's issue of The Dallas Times Herald a copy of which is enclosed, the Saturday Review article therein mentioned and the material at page 44 et seq. of the October 10, 1966 issue of the U. S. News & World Report has made now the most propitious time thus far for a break through in the Dallas Area for Whitewash. The demand for all Warren Commission Report books is now quite brisk and except for Inquest, The Oswald Affair, Rush to Judgment and The Second Oswald, such books are not to be had here. I suggest that you communicate immediately with Mr. Roy Urban, Jr., Commerce Street News Stand, 1505 Commerce Street, which is in the heart of down town Dallas, concerning the handling of Whitewash on a consignment basis.

I wish you good luck.

Sincerely yours,

Curtis E. Hill
